

Pushwagner presents: PERFECT HUMANTruls Espedal in Window Box

Opening Friday November 30 18.00 – 20.00

Pushwagner Galleri is pleased to invite you to the opening of Truls Espedal in Window Box. Pushwagner supports the young art scene by giving emerging artists space to show their work in Window Box, which presents exhibitions curated by Thale Fastvold.

Truls Espedal (b. 1973, Stavanger) is a visual artist. His main focus is paintings, but he also works with drawing and design. Truls has a BA (Hons) in Illustration and a MA in Visual Communication from Kent Institute of Art and Design, England. Some of his paintings are currently showing in Galleri Nicholines Hus (Kragere), Galleri Amare (Stavanger) and Galleri Svae (Gjøvik).

PERFECT HUMAN

The everyday stripped away, left is only the human animal.

The project 'Perfect Human' navigates through Realism with elements of Surrealism and Symbolism with the aim to reach beneath the surface. Human relations, emotions and their link with the natural world are explored. Through detailed depiction of anatomy, the purpose is to reach deeper in the attempt to portray the Human Condition.
