

Pushwagner presents:

Klaudia Iga in Window Box

Opening Friday Feb. 24. 18.00 - 20.00

Pushwagner Galleri has the pleasure of inviting you to the opening of Klaudia Iga's exhibition Mothers. Wives. Murderers. in Window Box. Pushwagner wishes to support the young art scene by giving emerging artists space to show their work in Window Box, which monthly presents artshows curated by Thale Fastvold.

Klaudia Iga strives to challenge the way we normally see women depicted in Western art. With her series Mothers, Wives, Murderers she puts focus on some of the last century's darkest female figures.

Ilse Koch - accused of taking souvenirs from the skin of murdered inmates with distinctive tattoos in the concentration camp during the World War II. She was known as "The Witch of Buchenwald" ("Die Hexe von Buchenwald") by the inmates because of her alleged cruelty and lasciviousness toward prisoners.

Magdalena Goebbels - the First Lady of the Third Reich and the wife of the Propaganda Minister Joseph Goebbels. She was in the bunker with Hitler during his last days and took the lives of her own six children when the end of the war came.

Susan Denise Atkins, Linda Kasabian, Patricia Krenwinkel - American murderers who were members of the "Manson family", led by Charles Manson. Manson and his followers committed a series of nine murders at four locations in California, over a period of five weeks in the summer of 1969.

Klaudia Iga Jastrzebska, photographer. Born in 1985, in Poland. She completed Master's degree in 2010 at the Academy of Fine Arts in Warsaw with an award for her work. During studies she was taking part in exhibitions in New York, Paris, Warsaw, Cologne, Zingst and others. Her work has been published in magazines such as 'Fotoakt', 'Oslo' and awarded in Warsaw Festival of Art Photography 2010, Warsaw Festival of Art Photography 2009 by the magazine 'Artluk', Canon and The Warsaw Uprising Museum, 2009.

Other exhibitions in 2012: Fotografiens hus - March, Galleri A - June.
